

The Shocking Truth About The TRUTH

- 1. To know the truth is to love the Truth.
- 2. To love the truth is to know the Truth.
- 3. To love and to know the truth is to serve the Truth.

It is a known fact that there is much information in the world opposed to our knowing, loving, and understanding the truth. We can go into any library or bookstore and discover stacks and rows of popular books purporting themes and schemes to discover hidden, esoteric, and or selfish practices that by which we can manipulate the world, other people, and materials for our own deceptive, devious, and liberal practices, thus, thwarting, stunting, and slowly choking the breath and life of the spirit to an impassable ennui.

Today, as in all todays since the beginning of time, we stand on a pivotal precipice where we must desire to choose to know, love, and serve the truth because the essence of Truth, cannot and will not ever be defined, confined, and pin pointed, into a stagnant morass muddled by impediments to our spiritual growth. The truth is all around us waiting to be known, loved, and served in our fellow men and women, our neighbors, our communities, our Nations, and in our societies.

Truth is a man. Jesus Christ is the Truth, the Life, and the Way. Truth is truth whether we know it or not; weather we believe it or not. With or without us; truth is. The truth can never be eradicated because it is in every fiber of our being and in every atom of our makeup; it seeks to be expressed in knowledge, love and service. The Holy Spirit of Truth, whom the Father sends in the Son's name Jesus, will guide us into all truth, and teach us all things. (John 14:26)

Ennui = The keen sense of boredom caused by a lack of interest; an intolerable weariness and dissatisfaction with life that results from a loss of interest or sense of excitement.
